7.3 Give two Best Practices of the institution (please see the format in the NAAC Self-study Manuals)

7.3: Best Practice I

1. Title of the Best Practice I: Credit Society in the Campus

2. Goal: Credit Society in the Campus was established in 1971 with a view to provide monetary help to a needy employee at a critical situation without any document and without asking any reason for the loan. Credit society honors brilliant students who secured very good marks in the board exams.

3. The context: The NGES campus has more than 400 employees serving in various institutes of the campus. Some employees serve institute in fixed salary and are in need of economic assistance at a worst time of life. So most of the employees are members of the Credit Society which charges low interest against the amount you asked for.

4. The Practice: The employees of the campus need not to go outside the campus asking for loan. The employees can proceed for loan in the campus without tension and wasting time and energy with fewer formalities. The society charges less interest. Besides, they can put a complete trust on the colleagues. The credit society has a huge fund and periodically it is distributed among members. Besides it, the credit society helps the dead members of the society and his or her family with its own two lacks insurance policy, additionally the society federation has two lacks insurance policy for extreme support to his or her family to come out of the worst family situation.

5. Evidence of Success: There are ninety eight members of the society and fifty percentages of the employees have already taken loan. The class three and four employees take the maximum benefit of this service.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required: The ad-hoc and visiting staff members of the campus cannot be a member of the credit society. Sometimes issues arise due to the controversy for the appointment of dignity. The society provides loan facility for a limited amount so some employees may have no interest in it.

7.3: Best Practice II

1. Title of the Best Practice II: Museum Hall

2. Goal: The goal of the Museum Hall is to provide special facility to more than ten institutes of the campus for organizing any event. The hall has the capacity to fulfill five hundred students at a time for any seminar, conference, welcome function, farewell function, meetings etc.

3. The context: The campus motivates and allows all institutes of the campus to utilize hall for curricular activities.

4. The Practice: Various academic as well as extra-curricular activities take place in the hall every year. Academic activities like welcome function, seminars, conferences, farewell function, social activities like Blood donation camp, thalassemia camp, lectures on environment are organized enthusiastically.

5. Evidence of Success: Every year well-come function for students of semester- I at graduate level of all colleges managed by our trust are organized successfully in the museum hall and more than 350 students of semester- I at graduate level have participated in the function. Similarly farewell, annual day celebration and other programs of all colleges managed by our trust are also organized in the hall. Decoration, sound system and other arrangements made by one college can be used by other college if the program is on immediate next day. This results in saving of time, money and energy.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required: Sometimes two programs clash due to a want of separate hall. There is an issue of taking responsibility for maintaining the hall in a good condition. No one is willing to repair the damage if it is done.
